Sam did not like working on the family farm or _____, so he ran away to live with the Cherokee _____. While living there, Sam received the nickname, the _____. Later, Sam returned to his family and opened a new _____ that cost students eight dollars a semester. Who do you think the teacher was? Sam, of course!

Sam became a soldier and a _____ in Tennessee. He was also elected governor of Tennessee and married a woman named Eliza Allen. When his marriage failed, Sam returned to live with his friends, the _____. While he lived with the Indians, Sam married another woman named Tiana Rogers but this marriage didn't last either. Then Sam was asked to travel to Texas by one of his important friends, the United States President Andrew _____. Sam was ready for a new adventure!

Sam liked _____ a great deal and he decided to make it his home. At that time Texas was owned by _____ and did not belong to the United States. When _____ heard of the Texan's plans, he led Mexican troops and took over the Alamo. Many men were killed and Texans were mad! Sam Houston decided to fight the Mexicans at a place called _____ on April 21, 1836. Sam's army won in just 18 minutes! Now Texas was free from Mexico and became the _____ of Texas. Who do you think was made president? Sam, of course!

Nine years later Texas became the 28th state in the _____. Sam Houston was elected as one of the first _____ from Texas and later he became _____ of the state.

When Sam was Governor, Texas decided to leave the United States and become part of the _____. Sam felt in his heart that this was wrong. Sam died in _____ on July 26, _____ from pneumonia. Today you can visit his homes at the Sam Houston Memorial Museum.
